

DANCER MICHAEL POWOLNY
WIENER KERAMIK CA. 1907

€11.000,00

Dancer looking to the right in black gown, design
Michael Powolny, manufactured by Wiener
Keramik, circa 1907, ceramics colorfully glazed, marked

In an elegant pose the dancer performs a swaying step in front of us, seductively looking over her shoulder. Her dress is lavishly adorned with flowers. The sophisticated hairstyle, the lavish decoration on her dress and flowing drapery offer Powolny ample opportunity to display all his virtuosity and technical finesse. With his dancers, Michael Powolny designed truly iconic statuettes that have become the epitome of Secessionist Viennese Art Nouveau ceramics.

