

FEMALE BUST KARL HAGENAUER CA. 1930

€6.800,00

Female bust, Karl Hagenauer, Werkstatte
Hagenauer Vienna, ca. 1930, brass patinated, marked

The bust, marked with "Karl", is an outstanding example of Art Déco statuettes. With her head turned slightly back over the shoulder, the young lady offers a generous view of her upper body. A light shawl, frivolously draped, hints at her décolleté and thus emphasizes the coquettish depiction. With female nudes and busts like these, Karl Hagenauer created figurines of stunning charisma, in a variety of techniques.

Karl Hagenauer shows a clearly defined structure in this cast bust. The upper body is depicted en face and the head in profile. The long moving curls cover the left side of the head and give the figure a particularly expressive dynamic. An exciting tension between the coquetry and the modesty becomes noticeable and leaves room for interpretation.
