The oval, ribbed bowl, designed by Franz Hagenauer, impresses with its minimalist form. Skillfully hammered from a single piece of brass, it is a prime example of the masterful craftsmanship of the Werkstätte Hagenauer. An elegantly curved ribbed pattern echoes the organic silhouette of the bowl, adding a touch of refinement to the otherwise functional design. The warm brass tone enhances the timeless elegance of the piece, while the precise craftsmanship underscores the clarity of its form. Two horizontal brass rods, on which the bowl rests, complete the design harmoniously.
