

GOLF PLAYER FRANZ
HAGENAUER CA. 1960

€9.500,00

Female golf player, design Franz Hagenauer, Werkstatte Hagenauer Vienna, ca. 1960, brass polished, marked

Karl and Franz Hagenauer were passionate about sports, and this finds expression in numerous motifs. Whether the popular skiers or polo players in the early years of Werkstatte Hagenauer, or boxers, tennis players and golfers: various sport activities - mostly conveying a certain lifestyle - are captured in lovingly designed sculptures.

With the female golf player Franz Hagenauer delivers an almost caricature-like snapshot. Her club raised and fixing the golf ball in front of her, she shows concentration before the tee shot. Precisely observing and with a twinkle, Franz Hagenauer captures the essence of golfing in a delightful scene. Thus, her peaked cap and leg position lend the this female golfer a special charm.
