Leaping dog, design Karl Hagenauer, execution Werkstatte Hagenauer Vienna, ca. 1930, brass nickel-plated, marked

This small, delightful figure of a jumping dog by the Werkstätte Hagenauer Vienna impresses above all with its dynamic lines and strong stylisation. With its reduced formal language, this brass figure clearly demonstrates the signature style of the Viennese artistic manufactory. Karl Hagenauer masterfully succeeds in capturing the dynamics of movement in a sculptural snapshot.
