Rare Vase with handles, Johann Loetz Witwe, decor Phenomen Genre 1/473 on Pink ground,
ca. 1902

The bottle-shaped vase in the decor 1/473 on pink belongs to the rather rare phenomenon decorations. Different sized, oval shaped silver oxide particles cover the entire lower part of the vessel. The decor with its yellowish shimmer delicately culminates in the four handles, which were artistically drawn out of the glass mass. The imprints on the body of the vase also emphasize the extravagant shape of this glass vessel. This expressive example of glass art is signed with "Loetz Austria" on the base, making it a desirable piece for every collector. There is a production-related minor stress crack on one of the handles.
