

MAX KAHRER "SILVER WILLOWS" 1919

€13.500,00

Max Kahrer (1878-1937), "Silberweiden" (Silver willows), oil on canvas, 1919, signed

Max Kahrer's paintings repeatedly feature motifs from the area around Klosterneuburg, where the artist spent practically his entire life. The Danube at Greifenstein, the Danube floodplains near Klosterneuburg and, of course, views of Klosterneuburg itself are repeatedly captured by the artist in his paintings. His works are characterized by a friendly, pastel, and lively color palette, often capturing complex light moods. In this work, Kahrer's characteristic harmony of blue and green tones comes into its own. The reflection of the "Silver Willows" in the water emphasizes the composition held entirely in aquatic tones, adding extra luminosity to the otherwise modest landscape motif.

NIKOLAUS KOLHAMMER
SEIT WIEN 2006

