

FLORIFORM VASE TIFFANY STUDIOS NEW YORK 1906

€12.000,00

Rare Floriform Vase, Louis Comfort Tiffany, Tiffany Studios New York, 1906, Favrile glass, signed

Vases of the “floriform” type range among the most desired glasses, were complicated to produce and therefore very expensive even around 1900. Tiffany’s objects d’art were often inspired by floral motives in this case it depicts a reduced blooming flower.

Bib.: R. Koch, “Tiffany and his glassworks”, s. 96, nr. 85; Jacob Baal-Teshuva, “Louis Comfort Tiffany”, p. 263; Museum for arts & crafts in Hamburg, “Louis C. Tiffany – Masterworks of the American Art Nouveau”, front cover and p. 113

