Tennis Player, Franz Hagenauer, Werkstatte Hagenauer Vienna, ca. 1965, nickel-plated brass, marked

Karl and Franz Hagenauer had a faible for sports, and this fact is reflected in numerous depictions. Whether the popular skiers or polo players in the early years of Werkstatte Hagenauer, or later also boxers, tennis players, or golfers: various athletic activities - often with a certain "lifestyle" aspect - are captured in lovingly designed sculptures. Here, Franz Hagenauer depicts a tennis player in an almost caricature-like snapshot. With keen observation and a twinkle in his eye, Franz Hagenauer captures the playful tennis game in a charming statuette.
